

agility

Agility Code of Conduct:

F5 has a well-established reputation for running its business in an ethical manner. It is important for us to continue to maintain this record of integrity and the company's reputation both in the U.S. and abroad.

These Terms and Conditions outline our expectations for all participants of the F5 Agility Conference. Event organizers will enforce these Terms and expect cooperation from all Agility Conference participants to help promote a safe and enjoyable experience for everyone. Agility provides a positive, harassment-free event experience for all participants and staff, regardless of gender, gender identity and expression, sexual orientation, disability, physical appearance, race, age or religion.

Unacceptable behavior will not be tolerated. Unacceptable physical, written or verbal behavior includes, but is not limited to intimidating, harassing, abusive, discriminatory, derogatory or demeaning conduct. Anyone engaged in unacceptable behavior is subject to expulsion from Agility without warning and/or banishment from future events. All determinations of acceptable and/or unacceptable behavior are at the sole discretion of the event organizer and its representatives. Decisions made by event organizers will be considered final.

If you ever need to report an ethical violation or concern, you can do so in confidence and without fear of retaliation by using our confidential reporting line.

You can report concerns by calling or emailing the Conduct and Ethics Hotline:

- Phone: (877) 778-5463
- Webform URL: www.reportit.net
- Username: f5networks
- Password: ffiv

Release and Personal Data Use Agreement:

By registering for and/or attending Agility, attendee understands and agrees personal information collected during the registration process is retained and used for providing information about Agility, follow-up events, and F5 products and services, including by electronic communications such as email and SMS.